MERRY CHRISTMAS & A HAPPY NEW YEAR

S.C.D.A FESTIVAL 2008

Auditions for our adult entry in the SCDA Festival next year is "The Last of the Last Mohicans". This is a very funny, fast moving farce set in Dublin. The characters are as follows:-

Dominic. A middle aged church manufacturer trying to indulge in a little adultery while his wife's away ...none too successfully!

Finbar. His accomplice who is an accident prone hypochondriac.

Grace. The none too bright but "body beautiful" assignee. She has just returned from playing Robin Hood in the local panto and is still in her Robin Hood outfit.

Ita. Dominic's wife who he describes as "the kind of woman who talks so much that if you listen to her it's an interruption!" Her unexpected return puts the cat among the pigeons.

Seamus. Grace's airline pilot husband who's legendary skills in the art of Kung Fu and his wild tempered ways is talked about and feared all through the play. He unexpectedly arrives as a result closure due to fog, with, in true farce tradition, unexpected results.

Betty Gibson who is producing is looking for three men over 40 and one woman over 40 and one over 25...or able to look these ages.

Auditions will be held on Monday 10th December at 4a Green Lane, Carnoustie. Phone 01241 852592 or email bettyngison@btinternet.com for audition pieces.
